SUGGESTION BOX

What do you want to see at Chicon 2000? Are there programming topics that cry out for attention and have hitherto been neglected? Should the Hugo Awards be handled differently? Have Worldcons been putting too much of their effort into the wrong areas? Did some element of a past Worldcon (or other convention) strike you as unusually worthwhile or futile?

Tell us what you think in the space below. Mail this form to the address shown above, fax it to (312) 946-3779 (no cover sheet needed), or send e-mail to ideas@chicon.org.
